FAMILY INTERACTION

James L. Framo, ed. A dialogue between family researchers and family therapists—a "genuine encounter."—Ivan Boszormenyi-Nagy. Included is a paper in which a therapist describes his effort to treat his own family and free himself from the family's emotional system. 275 pp., $9.50

PERSONALITY CHANGES IN AGING

Joseph H. and Jean O. Britton. Pioneering, longitudinal study in depth of community residents, aged 65 or more. Sheds light on why some persons decline with advancing years while others manage to achieve a satisfying old age. 236 pp., $7.95

INTELLECTUAL FUNCTIONING IN ADULTS

Lissy F. Jarvik, Carl Eisdorfer, June E. Blum, eds. Psychological and biological influences on mental functioning. The papers, all with clinical applicability, bring together most of the relevant research, including data on intellectual changes from the second through the ninth decades of life. 192 pp., $7.50

MORAL TREATMENT IN COMMUNITY MENTAL HEALTH

J Sanbourne Bockoven. Demonstrates, with examples from five pace-setting institutions (Worcester State, Boston Psychopathic, Butler, Cushing, Solomon), the added potential for recovery when moral treatment—genuine respect for the individual—is joined to medical and technical advances. 320 pp., $7.95

AGING AND BEHAVIOR

Jack Botwinick. Up-to-date, comprehensive, in-depth study of the literature on aging, providing both a professional source-book of concepts and a textbook for students. June, $10.50

Guidelines for FAMILY CARE HOME OPERATORS

Paul J. Schrader and Roslyn R. Elms. The former Program Chief of the Aftercare Facility, DeWitt State Hospital and his nurse-coauthor detail the supervision, by nonprofessionals, of mental patients in private homes—how family care operates and what the caretaker must know. 160 pp., $4.25

Note also:

TESTING FREUDIAN CONCEPTS

Irving Sarnoff. An experimental social approach. Principles apply with equal cogency to both Freudian and other theories of personality. 288 pp., $8.50; paper, $5.95

TRANSACTIONS of the American Neurological Association 1972

Samuel A. Trufant, ed. 428 pp., $13.50

Essentials of NEUROSURGERY FOR STUDENTS AND PRACTITIONERS

Sean Mullan. Still one of the "books . . . most frequently judged the best. . . Recommended."—Bull. Med. Libr. Assoc. (Oct. 1971). 286 pp., $8.25
